

Take Action with Climate Action KC

CAPACITY BUILDING FEE-BASED SERVICES NOW AVAILABLE FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

CAKC is proud to offer short-term support and smaller contracts to help move your projects forward.

Staff Capacity Support

Supplement your organization's in-house experience.

- Strengthen sustainability elements in upcoming projects.
- Maintain momentum on your projects tied to regional climate action priorities.

Climate Action Plans

Support the creation and implementation of local climate action plans.

- Support planning efforts and facilitate community discussions.
- Assess and propose priority initiatives with backing from key experts.

Train and Educate

Build your community's capacity for future progress.

- Facilitate trainings for staff and elected officials.
- Support task forces, boards, and commissions working on climate and sustainability projects.

THE RIGHT PARTNER FOR CRUCIAL WORK

Climate Action KC (CAKC) is at the forefront of regional climate action in Kansas City. Our pool of experts – from industry professionals to policy leads – can provide short-term, high-impact support to help your community advance climate and sustainability priorities.

For us, “climate action” is not just a phrase – it’s a movement. We are proud to partner with leaders and communities seeking to lead meaningful change.

ONGOING COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

We are honored to work with community partners from across the region. The fee-for-service model allows for targeted and strategic focus on priority projects in the same spirit of efficiency and urgency that founded CAKC. We are ready to support your community's movement on these critical strategies that will build health, resilience and prosperity. As we work, we bring to bear connections to peer communities working through similar projects, and will apply lessons learned to grow our region's overall resilience, faster.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER!

We're ready to help you move forward. Connect with us to talk further about how we can best support you, even if you're unsure about the next steps.

Dedicated to bringing passion and expertise to the table, CAKC strategically adapts to your community's priorities. We build capacity, help projects gain traction, and ensure your community's plans move from paper to implementation.